

1-When user on client side make http request to the site with static web hosting on aws s3 bucket which takes user requests and send it To elastic beanstalk which in turn

2-make query to aws rds postgres database asking for data requested by the user

3- the fetched data from the database are directed through Elastic Beanstalk to 4- s3 bucket which in turn will display it to the user

